

CONSTITUTION
OF
THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WABASH MEN

Article I: Name

The Name of this organization shall be the National Association of Wabash Men.

Article II: Membership

The membership of the Association shall be composed of:

1. All Alumni as defined by the College. The word “alumnus,” as used throughout this act, means any person holding a degree in course from the College, any person who has been in residence at the College one (1) year or more, or a person who has been designated as an Honorary Alumnus by the Association. The word “alumnus,” does not include any person actively on the rolls of the College as an undergraduate at the time of any annual election of trustees, or any person without a degree who entered the College with a class which has not yet graduated at the time of any annual election. The word “alumni,” as used throughout this document, means the plural of the word “alumnus” as herein above defined;
2. Tenured members of the faculty while employed by the College, Faculty Emeriti, members of the Board of Trustees during their tenure on the board, and Trustees Emeriti; and

Any individuals who have rendered service to Wabash College, and whose names are accepted for membership by the Board of Directors of the Association.

Article III: Missions and Goals

1. The Mission of the National Association of Wabash Men (NAWM) is to support the interests of Wabash College through encouragement and development of relationships which will help the College achieve its mission of "educating men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely."
2. The Mission of the Board of Directors is to help facilitate integration of the College's alumni, students, administration, parents, faculty, and friends in order to help the Association achieve its goals. Further, the Board serves to advise and assist the College's administration, when needed or desired, to help in successfully achieving the College's Mission.
3. The Goals of the Association shall be:
 - a. To advance the interest in the College through the support and participation by members of the Association;

- b. To cultivate and maintain support and participation through the organization of graduating classes and alumni in geographical areas; and
- c. To encourage and guide support of the College, to:
 - 1. "Spread the fame of her honored name..."
 - 2. Assist in bringing young men of high promise to the College as students;
 - 3. Promote vigorously the program of annual giving to the College;
 - 4. Ensure the flow of Wabash information to Wabash men;
 - 5. Critically support the standards of the College's operation;
 - 6. Render service to the Board of Trustees, Administration, or Faculty as needed; and
 - 7. Assist students in the planning and establishment of careers.
- d. The ideal member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Wabash Men will provide steadfast support for satisfying the mission and goals outlined in this Article III and shall remain in good standing as a Director. "Good Standing" shall be defined as making every human effort to attend each meeting of the Board, with the added expectation that no Director shall miss more than two consecutive meetings of the Board.

Article IV: Officers and Board of Directors

2. The Directors shall select the recipient(s) of the Award at the Spring meeting of the Board.

Article IX. Honorary Alumnus

1. The Association is hereby empowered to honor and recognize individuals who are not alumni of Wabash College by designating them Honorary Alumnus of Wabash College. This honor is given to a man or woman who truly personifies the spirit and commitment that sets Wabash, its students and the Wabash community apart from all others. It is the highest honor the Association can give to a non-alumnus.
2. The Directors shall select the recipients of the Award at the Spring meeting of the Board. Additionally, the Directors may select further recipients of the Award at other meetings of the Board under extraordinary circumstances.

Article X: Athletics Hall of Fame

The Association is hereby empowered to honor and recognize individuals who, by outstanding athletic achievement and service, have made a lasting and significant contributions to the cause of sports at Wabash College, the state of Indiana, and the nation. The process for selecting these Hall of Fame inductees is contained in the Constitution of the Wabash College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Article XI: Admissions and Career Services Fellows

1. The Association is hereby empowered to honor and recognize individuals who, by outstanding service to the student recruitment and admissions or the career services efforts, have made a lasting and significant contribution to Wabash College.
2. The Directors shall select the recipients of these Awards at the Spring meeting of the Board.

Article XII: The Butler-Turner Student-Alumni Engagement Award

1. The Association is hereby empowered to honor and recognize members of the Wabash faculty and staff who have made an outstanding contribution to Wabash College by distinguishing themselves through the investment of personal time and resources resulting in a significant impact on Wabash students and/or alumni.
2. The Directors shall select the recipient(s) of this Award at the Spring meeting of the Board.

Article XIII: Alumni Trustees

1. The National Association of Wabash men shall be represented on the Board of Trustees by individuals designated as “alumni trustees.” Two (2) trustees in each even-numbered year and one (1) trustee in each odd-numbered year shall be chosen by the alumni of the College by the process outlined below.
 - a. The alumni trustees shall be selected in the following manner: At the Winter meeting of the Board of Directors of the Association, in the calendar year that the alumni trustee or trustees are to be elected, the Board shall nominate at least four (4) persons in even-use of a secure electronic agent that creates an electronic record with the capability of including an electronic signature, consistent with the definitions provided in IC 26-2-8-102, as established by the registrar and identical in substance to the mailed ballot. On the fourth Tuesday of April in each year, the ballots shall be opened and canvassed by a group of three alumni (known as “canvassers”) from the Montgomery County area chosen by the Office of Alumni Affairs. Within three (3) days thereafter the committee shall certify to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees the names of the two (2) candidates in even-numbered years and the name of the one (1) candidate in odd-numbered years, receiving the highest number of votes. At its next meeting following the fourth Tuesday in April of each year, the Board of Trustees shall elect to its membership the two (2) candidates or the (1) candidate, as the case may be, whose names or name has been so certified to the board’s secretary by the committee of canvassers.

- c. If, in any year, for any cause, the alumni fail to select the alumni trustee or trustees as provided in subdivision (a), the Board of Trustees shall elect, by a majority vote of the trustees in office present and voting at the election meeting two (2) alumni in even-numbered years or one (1) alumnus in odd-numbered years, as the case may be, to serve as alumni trustees of Wabash College. Subject to the provisions of this act, the Trustees shall, by majority vote of their number present and voting at the time of such election, elect successor trustees in the event of the death or resignation of any of their number. Any vacancies so filled shall be for the unexpired term of the trustee whose death or resignation has caused such vacancy.
- d. An Alumni Trustee shall serve a four (4) year term and may be re-elected and succeed himself for an additional four (4) year term. The Alumni Trustee shall not be able to succeed himself after serving two (2) terms but shall be eligible for re-election as an Alumni Trustee after a lapse of a period of one (1) year from the expiration of his last term of service as Alumni Trustee.
